FUN ON THE FERRIS WHEEL!

What has one wheel, spins, but never goes anywhere? Yep ... a Ferris wheel! When the fair came to town, that was the first thing everyone wanted to ride. But there was plenty of fun to be had on the bumper cars and boat swing ride too!

LET'S RIDE THE FERRIS WHEEL AS SOON AS I FINISH MY POPCORN.

I'LL TAKE 27 BALLOONS, PLEASE. I WANT TO FLY!

BETTER NOT SIT NEXT TO ME. POPCORN MAKES ME GASSY.

PLAY THE WHEEL OF WONDER!

LEGO CLASSIC

IT'S TIME TO GET BUILDING!

Check out this wheel! You'll find an assortment of different animals and objects. Combine two of them together and build your own creation to fill the white space in between.

For example, what do you get when you combine an alligator and a bus? (We don't know, but we wouldn't want to drive one!)

Share what you made in the #Classic group in the LEGO® Life app. Or send it to us as a Cool Creation (see page 20).

AMAZING ANIMAL FRIENDSHIPS

Just like people, animals can also make friends, and sometimes they're rather unexpected. But at the end of the day, if you've got each other's backs, who cares what species you are? Here are some real-life incredible friendships!

Bubbles, an African elephant, has a black Labrador named Bella. The dog loves to use Bubbles' head as a diving board. Cannonball!

A tiny dachshund named Milo "adopted" a disabled lion cub named Bonedigger. Milo likes to try to imitate his friend, but there is a 485-pound difference between them!

A lion, a tiger and a bear were all rescued together and have become lifelong friends. They play together and cuddle together, but so far no one has seen them skateboarding.

SORRY, MAX, THESE ARE ALL FOR ME.

Dear Max,
2 of my favorite things are LEGO bricks and Harry Potter. I needed somewhere to store my LEGO people, so I decided to build a LEGO frame to keep my people safe. I thought that the frame might inspire you to build them. I have really enjoyed LEGO play over lockdown.

Yours sincerely,
