You agree and consent to us and our authorised service providers and third parties to collect, use and disclose and/or retain your personal data in the manner set forth in this policy. This policy forms a part of the terms and conditions governing your relationship with us.

We reserve the right to add to or amend this policy from time to time. The date of the last amendment will appear at the end of this policy.

1. Your Personal Data

1.1. Examples of personal data include but are not limited to:

- (a) your name, NRIC, passport or other identification number, telephone number(s), mailing address, email address and any other information relating to you which you have provided in any form to us;
- (b) your photos;
- (c) personal data of your family members, such as next of kin, spouses and children; and
- (d) information about your usage of and interaction with our website(s) and/or services including computer and connection information, device capability, bandwidth, statistics on page views and traffic to and from our website(s).

2. Collection of your Personal Data

2.1. For the Contest, we may collect your personal data through the following ways:

- (a) when you enter a submission for the Contest;
- (b) when you interact with any of our employees;
- (c) when you respond to our request for additional personal data; and
- (d) when you request that we contact you.

3. Purposes for the Collection, Use and Disclosure of Your Personal Data

3.1. For the Contest, our collection, use, disclosure and/or retention of your personal data will be limited to such purposes that are in connection with the Contest only.

4. Disclosure of your Personal Data

4.1. We may disclose your personal data to the following group of external organisations for purposes mentioned above, subjected to the requirements of applicable laws:

- (a) insurance companies in connection with claims;
- (b) agents, contractors, data intermediaries or third-party service providers who provide services, such as mailing, information technology, data processing, storage and archival to us;
- (c) our professional advisers such as our auditors;
- (d) relevant government regulators, statutory boards or authorities or law enforcement agencies to comply with any laws, rules, guidelines and regulations or schemes imposed by any government authority; and
- (e) any other person in connection with the purposes set forth above.

5. Protection of your Personal Data

5.1. We maintain appropriate security safeguards and practices to protect your personal data unauthorised access, collection, use, disclosure, copying, modification disposal or similar risks, in accordance with applicable laws including the PDPA.

6. Accuracy of your Personal Data

6.1. We take all reasonable measures to ensure that your personal data remains accurate, complete and up-to-date.

6.2. Please keep us informed when there are any updates to your personal data by contacting us directly.

7. Withdrawal of Consent

7.1. If you wish to withdraw your consent to any use or disclosure of your personal data as set out in this policy, please contact us directly.

7.2. Please note that if you withdraw your consent to any or all use or disclosure of your personal data, depending on the nature of your request, we may no longer be in a position to continue to provide services to you.

8. Access to and Correction of your Personal Data

8.1. You may request access to or make corrections to your personal data records by contacting us directly.
