ACCLAMATOR-CLASS ASSAULT SHIP™

STAR WARS

A REPUBLIC TRIUMPH

From the beginning of the Clone Wars to the Imperial era, the trans-galactic Acclamator-class has been a defining factor in several key Star Wars™ battles. This heavy transport ship was first, and perhaps most famously, seen in Attack of the Clones when Master Yoda leads the first twelve Acclamators from Kamino, deploying a swarm of clone troopers in the First Battle of Geonosis. As one of the most successful Rothana Heavy Engineering starships, it is magnificently versatile, participating in many battles throughout the Clone Wars and eventually gaining its signature Republic markings. Presented for the first time as a stand-alone model in our LEGO® Star Wars Starship Collection, the Acclamator-Class Assault Ship is packed with authentic decorations and carefully crafted details.

Enjoy building!

MAXIMUM CAPACITY & PERFORMANCE

With a capacity for 700 crew, 16,000 clone troopers and hundreds of battle vehicles, the Acclamator-class is one of the sturdiest transport starships in the Galactic Republic. Repulsorlifts and landing pods support the landing and deployment of troops, LAAT gunships, AT-TE walkers and other vehicles in almost any terrain. The bridge is protected by armoured panels, and holographic displays make navigation possible in the most impenetrable environments. The hull can withstand any attack, and heavy armament assures swift defence and attack capabilities. In hyperdrive, the Acclamator-class truly excels. A class 0.6, it is among the fastest starships in the galaxy.
