The diagram shows a multi-level LEGO Technic building. The main structure is grey with a red roof. A central courtyard area is covered with grey Technic plates. To the right, there is a kitchen area with a red stove and a white sink. Below the kitchen is a bathroom with a white toilet. The building has several windows and a staircase on the left side. A red circle highlights a hole on the roof where a pin should be inserted. An arrow points from the pin diagram above to this hole.
